The Montana Career Path:

A Framework for Professional Development in Early Childhood Education Supplemental Document

The Career Path promotes professional development for early care and education practitioners by providing a framework for recording and recognizing experience, training, and educational accomplishments.

The Career Path outlines ten levels of career development based on training, education and experience in the field. Any individual developing a plan for professional growth in early care and education can chart a course on the Career Path.

FAQs

How do I know if my credits/degrees are from accredited institutions?

In order to count towards a level on the Career Path, college credits and degrees must be from a regionally accredited college or university. The US Department of Education manages a database for institutional accreditation, which can be found at www.ope.ed.gov/accreditation. There are six accrediting bodies, view the info sheet here.

How do I know what courses count towards ECE credits?

The courses that count toward the necessary credits are listed in the Early Childhood Credit list and sorted by Knowledge Base content area and identified with input from the MT Early Childhood Higher Education Consortium and the Career Development Advisory Board.

What credits are accepted as early childhood/child development for the Practitioner Registry?

To count for the Practitioner Registry, all credits and degrees must be from a regionally accredited college or university and carry a letter grade of C or better. Pass/Fail classes will not count for credits. For requirements that include 12 semester college credits, those early childhood credits can fall in any Knowledge Base area below. For requirements that include 20 semester college credits, those early childhood credits must fall within six of the areas below with four required areas noted with an *(asterisk):

- Child Growth and Development*
- Environmental Design
- Diversity
- Health and Well-being
- Family and Community Partnerships*
- Curriculum*
- Child Guidance*
- Observation, Documentation & Assessment
- Program Management
- Professionalism
