

Knowledge base content area crosswalk with CDA standards

2013 Knowledge Base	2022 Knowledge Base	CDA subject areas
Child development and learning <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Health and well-being • Child growth and development • Environmental design 	Child development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Development in all domains • Influences on development • Context of development 	Understanding the principles of child development and learning
Family and community partnerships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Environment • Teaching and learning • Program management 	Family and community partnerships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family and community diversity • Families as partners • Community resources 	Building productive relationships with families
		Managing an effective program operation
Observation, documentation, and assessment	Observation, documentation, and assessment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Foundations of assessment • Assessment approaches • Ethics of assessment 	Observing and recording children’s behavior
Developmentally effective approaches <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Child guidance • Diversity 	Teaching and engagement <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Relationships and guidance • Play-based teaching strategies • Supporting children’s individual needs 	Supporting children’s social and emotional development
Curriculum	Curriculum and learning environment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Montana early learning and content standards • Indian Education for All • Universal design for learning 	Advancing children’s physical and intellectual development
		Planning a safe and healthy learning environment
Professionalism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DAP • Ethics • Personal dispositions 	Professionalism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Professional standards and ethics • Advocacy • Reflective practice 	Maintaining a commitment to professionalism

Green = Knowledge Base content areas